

PROUDLY BUILDING OUR HERITAGE

Hartland Hearsay

Newsletter of the Hartland Historical Society

P.O. Box 54, Hartland, Wisconsin

April 2009

HHS Directors:

President

Pam Weinhammer

Vice-President

Mickey Andrea

Secretary

Rudy Weinhammer

Treasurer

Donna Vrakas

Board Member

Rick Beringer

Board Member

Lisa Pellegrini

Board Member

Mary Beth Eckels

Upcoming dates:

General Membership Meetings

are always on the first
Thursdays of the month.

Locations vary.

Special meeting:

Thursday, April 16

7:00 p.m.

1020 Chelsea Circle

Hartland: Past & Present

Thursday, May 7th, 7:00 - 8:45pm

A Pictorial Tour of Hartland's Past

A FREE Presentation

Sponsored by the Hartland Historical Society.

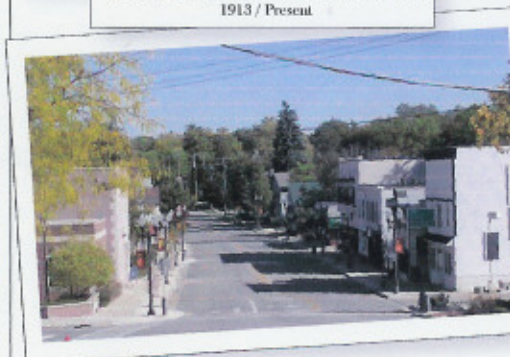

Location: Hartland Municipal Building Community Room

PROUDLY BUILDING OUR HERITAGE

Looking east onto Capitol Drive from Hill Street.
1913 / Present

The Hartland Inn, previously the Commercial Hotel
1913 / Present

www.hartlandhistory.com

"People may doubt what you say but they will believe what you do."

Unknown

Trivia Question:

The original settlement, later known as Hartland, was a part of what two townships?

Historical Picture Contest

Dig out that box of old photographs and submit your favorite to the Hartland Historical Society's Historical Picture Contest. In recognition of Wisconsin Historic Preservation Month in May, the Hartland Historical Society will sponsor a Historical Picture Contest consisting of three categories:

Single building/structure/home

Street scene

People, individuals or groups

Prizes will be awarded in each category plus a grand prize will be given for the most rare photograph not currently found in the HHS collection. Prizes will include gift certificates to area businesses and restaurants.

Photographs can be submitted in person from 9:00–12:00 at the Hartland Public Library on Thursday, April 30th, Saturday, May 2 or Thursday May 7. Scanning service for photograph entries will be provided at that time.

Entries may also be emailed to the HHS at HartlandHistory@wi.rr.com with the photograph and entry form as an attachment. Forms and contest rules are available at the Hartland Public Library and on the Hartland Historical Society's website www.hartlandhistory.com and click on the Historical Picture Contest link.

Winners will be announced the week of June 8. Photographs will be on display until June 30 at the Hartland Public Library.

Contest Rules:

- ◆ Photograph must be at least 50 years old (1959 or prior).
- ◆ Actual photo size cannot be larger than 8 x 10"
- ◆ Color or black and white photographs are accepted
- ◆ You must allow the HHS to scan the photograph for their archives.
- ◆ Scanned copies will be accepted—scanning service provided at designated times.

The Hartland Historical Society or Hartland Public Library will not be responsible for loss or damage of original photos.

- ◆ An entry form must be filled out including a description of the following:

What it is—occasion/location

Year taken

Names of people or places in the photograph

- ◆ Subject of photograph must pertain to the Village of Hartland or within a 5 mile radius of Hartland.

15th Annual Civil War Encampment

The Elmbrook Historical Society invites history lovers and Civil War buffs throughout the State of Wisconsin to their 15th Annual Spring Civil War Encampment, a two day Civil War era re-enactment that will be held on Saturday, May 2, 2009 and Sunday, May 3, 2009 from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm on the grounds of the historic Dousman Stagecoach Inn, 1075 Pilgrim Parkway in Brookfield, Wisconsin.

At the 15th Annual Civil War Encampment, visitors will have the opportunity to step back in time to the 1860's. Relive the experiences of the soldiers dressed in Confederate and Union army uniforms who fought in the Civil War, see how they encamped and cooked. view them marching and preparing for battle, observe a skirmish or two and an artillery demonstration, meet President Lincoln throughout the 2 day event and listen to him give an address.

Admission to attend the Elmbrook Historical Society's 15th Annual Civil War Encampment is: $5.00 for adults, $2:00 for children, $12.00 for families.

PROUDLY BUILDING OUR HERITAGE

P.O. Box 54
Hartland, WI 53029

E-mail: HartlandHistory@wi.rr.com

Help Preserve Hartland's History!

Tell us your story!

If you'd like to share the history of your home with the Hartland Historical Society, please send information to the email address above.

Thank you!

This and That

The Milwaukee County Genealogical Society will hold a Genealogy Workshop on Saturday, April 18, 2009. Speakers at this workshop include Debbe A. Hagner, an accredited Genealogist who received a diploma in Family History from Brigham Young University; Mike Karsen, a professional genealogy speaker, instructor and researcher and Trudy Knauss Paradis co-author of "German Milwaukee—Its History—Its Recipes" The cost of the workshop is $45.00 which includes a box lunch. The workshop will be held at Serb Memorial Hall, 5101 W. Oklahoma Avenue. Please contact the MCGS at loisk@execpc.com for more information.

Trivia Answer:

The townships of Merton and Delafield.

Don't forget our next meeting on Thursday, April 16.

Call Pam at 262-367-2979 for more information!